PERFORMANCE • DESIGNED FOR HUMAN

RH AXIA EXCLUSIVE

COMBINED ELEGANCE AND ERGONOMICS

RH Axia Exclusive is characterised by the movement of the chair. The back rest and seat move together at a fixed angle, ensuring proper pelvic support thanks to the interaction between the support points in the back rest and seat.

Unique mechanism with split seat technique. The front part of the Axia is fixed, only the rear section of the chair moves together with the user as the lean forward or backward.

RH AXIA EXCLUSIVE

DESIGNED FOR HUMAN PERFORMANCE

RH Axia Exclusive has a large back and comes as standard with castors for soft floor and base in black lacquered aluminum. All controls are easily accessible on both sides of the chair and adjustable for individual needs. Can be fitted with many optional extras.
